ICM Integration with Business Objects

Cary, North Carolina March 28, 2005 - Compliancey is introducing a Business Objects Integration Kit for ICM. This allows for out-of-the-box integration with Business Objects.

ICM will include the Business Object Integration Kit for all ICM customers that would like to integrate with Business Objects. ICM comes standard with integrated Microsoft Reporting Services. This allows users to replace the standard reporting service with Business Objects with very little effort.

Integrated reporting capabilities provide management and auditors with accurate and up-to-date control information that is customized to their needs.
