Compliancy Expands Services and Modifies Name to Reflect Changes
Compliancy Adds Unique Value with Its Software-as-a-Service GRC Solution

Sanford, NC – May 11, 2010 - Compliancy (formerly Compliancy Software) announced the delivery of its unique BPM-based GRC platform as a Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) for both external and internal private cloud based compliance management.

The Compliancy GRC SaaS solution is unique by allowing small to large companies to take advantage of the lower initial investment risk of a SaaS solution while still having the option of migrating the solution in-house as part of a private cloud computing solution or a networked on-premises solution.

Companies can start with any aspect of meeting regulatory or in-house compliance requirements, take advantage of all the capabilities of the comprehensive Compliancy GRC platform, and expand compliance coverage as required with a future proof solution. In addition, Compliancy provides experience professional services to assist customers in the development of their solution to ensure customer satisfaction and success.

In order to better reflect the company's services expansion and strategy, the company name has been streamlined to "Compliancy" (formerly Compliancy Software) along with the web and email addresses to facilitate communication and collaboration.

Compliancy's new web site address is www.compliancy.com.
